This fund is available to EDC members who require financial assistance to continue their dance training and education. This may include registration fees, travel expenses to attend festivals, Provincials, and dance intensives. Ballet/tap exam fees, summer schools, and workshops may be considered depending on dancer's level and type of activity. Choreography, costumes, dance attire, class fees and non-essential dance activities are not covered.

To qualify for funding, dancers must meet the following criteria

1. Be a member of Enchainement Dance Centre
2. Be 20 years or younger as of the application date
3. Submit completed application form to murraymemorialfund@gmail.com prior to the applicable event.
4. Attach two dance teacher names for references to support your application. (NOTE: the MMF will approach the selected teachers on your behalf to obtain references)
5. Attach a letter to the MMF committee describing:
 - a. Your reason for applying
 - b. How the funding will help you achieve your goals
 - c. A list of anticipated expenses and dollar amount associated with each
 - d. Evidence that demonstrates financial need at the time of application (a clear description of current financial situation indicating why assistance is required)
6. Retain and submit ALL receipts to the committee within 2 weeks following the applicable event

Rules and Regulations

- Each application will be reviewed by the MMF committee members.
- All applications will be kept in strict confidentiality by the committee.
- Applicants are also expected to adhere to confidentiality protocol.
- Awarding of funds will be dependent on but not limited to the number of applications, the amount of available funding, dancer's supporting documentation and teacher's references provided.
- Applicants will be advised of any awarding of funds a minimum of 2 weeks prior to the applicable event.
- Applications for the current dance season will not be considered until all receipts from previous application awards have been received.
